

CSLA ANNUAL FALL BANQUET WAS A BLESSED EVENING FOR ALL

C.S. Lewis Academy hosted its annual Fall Banquet at the Tualatin Country Club last Saturday evening for a full-capacity crowd, making it the best turnout ever. Former, current and prospective CSLA parents along with staff and faculty members came together for a wonderful evening of fellowship, a delicious meal, and a time to experience the heart of CSLA in a full-spectrum overview.

The evening began with a moving rendition of "God So Loved the World" performed by the high school choir. Mr. Witherspoon then delivered a message on the heart and hope of C.S. Lewis Academy. Three CSLA students representing the Grade School, Middle School, and High School delivered heartfelt testimonies to what God has done both in and through them at CSLA.

The keynote speaker for the evening was William Paul Young, author of a compelling new novel, The Shack. Mr. Young shared many personal experiences that have helped shape and knit his family together with the Lord. Some experiences were creatively shared through stories; others through song. The audience was greatly moved and inspired.

Kelly Hagglund, lead broker of Newberg's The Kelly Group, offered a message on the importance of giving to CSLA. A wonderful time was had by all in attendance on this very special evening. CSLA would like to say a special thank you to all the parents and volunteers who dedicated countless hours of time and planning in order to make this an evening to remember!

54 BOXES!!!!

Thanks to all our wonderful students and staff who worked together filling 54 Operation Christmas Child boxes! Through your time and generosity, the love and joy of Jesus Christ will be shared with children in other lands. God bless each and every one of you!

BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

Box Tops for Education is an easy way to earn money for our school. Watch for the labels on many of your food packages, such as General Mills, Pillsbury and Ziploc. These labels are redeemable for cash. We also collect Campbell's soup labels to earn points toward school supplies and equipment. Please turn in your labels & box tops to either campus office. Thanks for your support!
